DEATHS AND FUNERALS.—Mr. Arsenus Schofield, an old and well-known resident, died suddenly at his home, 319 north Columbus street, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been in feeble health for some time, but had not been confined to his bed, and his death was a surprise to his friends. He was a native of England, having been born in that country Nov. 13, 1823. He is survived by a widow and four grown children, Mrs. John T. Harrison and Mr. D. Webb Schofield, of this city, and Mr. William H. Schofield, of Washington, and Mr. John Schofield, of Zanesville, Ohio. Mr. Schofield came to Alexandria shortly after the war and became the superintendent of the Mount Vernon cotton factory, which position he held until that factory ceased operations. He then went to Zanesville, where he held a similar position for about seven years, but subsequently returned to this city and retired from active business. He was at one time a member of the City Council from the Third ward. Carroll Ashby, the 13-year-old son of Mr. Ollie Posey, formerly of this city but now of Washington, died in that city this morning after an illness of about two weeks of typhoid fever. His remains were brought here this afternoon for interment.
The funeral of the late Andrew Della, whose death occurred on Tuesday night, took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his residence on south Lee street. Potomac Lodge, of Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body and a number of friends and acquaintances followed the remains to the cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Harrison, S. A. Markin, G. W. Bontz, F. Geisendorfer, W. S. Keane and Julian Howershell, members of the Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a member. The interment was made in the Union Cemetery.
Funeral services over the remains of the late Washington Harper, whose death occurred on Wednesday last, took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his late residence, 427 Cameron street, and was attended by a number of relatives and friends. Rev. J. A. Jeffers conducted the services, and the interment was made in the Bethel Cemetery.

RAILWAY BROKENSHIP CASE.—The suit for the appointment of a receiver for the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company came up this morning before Judge Nicol in vacation at Manassas. The proceedings were instituted by B. Henry Phillips, through his counsel, Commonwealth's Attorney James E. Clements. Mr. Phillips was the original promoter and builder of this road, is a large stockholder, and until a few weeks ago was its general manager. Mr. Phillips claims that he was unlawfully deposed as manager; that he is the only director or stockholder who lives in Virginia, where the corporation is, and that the books and papers of the company have been ordered from the Virginia office to an office in Philadelphia. He alleges that the company has broken an agreement with him and jeopardized the value of his stock and interest in the road. The road is now dominated, he declares, by a few men in Philadelphia, regardless of the rights of residents or Virginia stockholders, and that these dominant parties are doing and performing acts contrary to law and to the great damage of the interest of the company and its stockholders. He charges that the company neglected to hold its annual meeting in June last and neglected to prepare the accounts required by law. The president and secretary of the company, he says, who live and have their offices in Philadelphia, prepared a misleading report of the earnings and expenses of the company for the year ended February 1, and returned this report to the auditor of Virginia about June 1. The president of the company and the others in control in Philadelphia, he asserts, have, without authority, taken from the treasurer of the company over 384 shares of capital stock in payment of alleged services.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS
All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box. 25c.

THE CLERGY.—August is the month during which most of the city clergy take their vacation and this year will be no exception to the rule.
Rev. Berryman Green, of Christ Church, is at Mount Jackson.
Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's, will leave about the middle of the month but has not decided where he will spend his vacation.
Rev. C. E. Bell, of Grace Church, has not decided just when he will leave.
Rev. Fathers Cutler and Ahern, of St. Mary's Church, will take no extended vacation but will be absent for a few days at a time during the month.
Rev. E. V. Regester, of the M. E. Church South, is now in Maryland.
Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of Trinity M. E. Church, will take no regular vacation but will probably be absent from the city for a few days during the month.
Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of the M. P. Church, will leave on Monday to spend a few weeks in Maryland.
Rev. F. J. Burke, of the Second Presbyterian Church, leaves tonight for Stafford and from there will go to Rockbridge county to spend the remainder of his vacation.
Rev. G. L. Hunt, of the Baptist Church, will not take his vacation till after the meeting of the Baptist Association, the latter part of the month.
Rev. M. L. Leucke, of Immanuel Lutheran Church, will go to Buffalo about the middle of the month to spend a few days.
Rev. Mr. Cavanaugh, of the Free Methodist Church, will remain in the city most of the month.

THE MAN AND THE HAT.—A comparatively young man of stout and short build, wearing a caputious covering of the style which prevailed among Quakers at the beginning of the last century, has been attracting attention on the streets during the past day or two. All sorts of speculation as to his identity have been indulged in, some taking him to be a representative of Paul Kruger's government and others a descendant of Ben Harrison and heir to the hat which so long figured in cartoons. The query, "Where did you get that hat?" is heard by the stranger wherever he goes. He takes it all good-naturedly and parades thoroughfares with the tile perched upon the back of his head. The mission of the individual referred to is to renovate old hats, and so long as he gets such jobs he is impervious to the criticism or laughter he produces. While located in Frederickburg recently he unearthed the hat he now wears. It is doubtless much older than the traditional "Grandfather's Clock," which is as large as an ordinary nail keg and as broad as the phylactery of a pharisee.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today:
James Richards, petit larceny, third offense; committed for court.
William Gary, drunk in the street; 30 days in the work house.
Williams, Brooks, colored, disorderly and fighting; fined $5.
Charles Baltimore, colored, disorderly and fighting; fined $5.
John Green, colored, assault and beating James Lewis; dismissed.
James Lewis, colored, disorderly conduct; fined $2.50.
Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and warm. Three prisoners were at the station house.

FINED THE PLAINTIFF.—Among the fights which occurred Thursday night was one between Charles Baltimore and James Lewis, both colored. The latter swore out a warrant against Baltimore, charging him with assaulting him with a chair. When the case was called this morning Lewis wanted to withdraw the warrant, pretending that he and Baltimore were playing. It appeared, however, that Lewis had applied an ugly epithet to Baltimore and provoked the trouble. The Mayor allowed him to withdraw the charge, but imposed a fine of $2.50 upon the plaintiff for disorderly conduct.

RIVER NOTES.—The schooner J. B. Anderson, with fertilizer from Baltimore, has arrived at the Bryant Fertilizer Company.
The schooner Estelle Poinney, which arrived here several days ago with a load of ice, will leave Monday for Newport News where she will load coal for a northern port.
The barges C. J. Pugh and Joshua B. Myers have arrived from Havre de Grace with coal to J. R. Zimmerman.
The barge York, with coal from Philadelphia, has arrived to W. A. Smoot & Co.

SEARCHING FOR HIS DAUGHTER.—Norman Sinclair, a farmer of Bailey's Cross Roads, went to Washington last night in search of his fifteen-year-old daughter, Gertrude, who, he alleged, was taken to that city by her brother-in-law, Thomas E. Clark, from her father's home. It appears from the statement made by the father that the present trouble is the culmination of a long series of domestic differences, during which Clark, who married one of Mr. Sinclair's daughters, is said to have frequently threatened to kill his wife and child.

HURT BY AN EXPLOSION.—Mr. Albert Drefuss while at work assorting junk yesterday was seriously injured on one side of his face near the eye and on one of his arms. He undertook to burn some sort of an explosive. The can burst and parts of it flying caused the injuries described above.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.—Among the cases before Mayor Simpson this morning was that of James Richards, who was charged with the larceny of a quantity of rope. Richards having on several previous occasions been convicted of petit larceny, the Mayor, in accordance with law, sent him on to the grand jury.

BARGAINS WITHOUT PRECEDENT await your coming next week at Schwarz's, 518 King street. The midsummer sale has created widespread interest; the offerings represent astonishing values, in many cases less than wholesale cost. Your money will command triple with its purchasing power of a month ago.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. J. F. Rodgers, daughter and son, left yesterday morning for a two weeks visit to Colonial Beach.
Mr. William Bryant has gone to Orkney Springs to spend a week or two.
Miss M. G. Norton has gone to Markham to spend a part of the summer.
Mr. Urban S. Lambert continues seriously ill at his home on Duke street.
Mr. William L. Naylor leaves tomorrow morning for State Mills, Va., for a few weeks' vacation.
Capt. Albert Bryan has joined his family who are at Catlett's, and will stay two weeks there.
Miss Anna Niebet left last Thursday for Rehoboth Beach to spend several weeks.
Mrs. O. F. Carter has gone to Orange, N. J., to spend a few weeks with her mother.
Right Rev. Bishop Van de Vyver, of Richmond, left this evening for Georgetown College, where he will be a guest for one week. The right reverend bishop and thirty of the Catholic clergy of the diocese of Richmond including Fathers Cutler and Ahern of this city, will next Monday begin a five days' retreat at Georgetown College. It will be conducted by Rev. Edward J. Davitt, S. J.
Miss Sarah Howard will spend the residue of the summer at Charlestown, W. Va.
Mrs. Jno. J. Jamieson arrived in the city on Thursday and will spend August here.
Mr. Daniel Ruben has gone to Atlantic City to spend a few days.

THE MARKET.—There was an abundant supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices were about the same as the quotations given in the Gazette last Saturday. The pleasant weather caused an increased number of country people to be in attendance, and more than an average number of buyers appeared. All reasonable vegetables were in abundance. Watermelons and cantaloupes are now coming in and peaches are gradually becoming more plentiful.

HANDSOME CANE.—Mr. Walter Kerrick has just finished making a very handsome cane that is of much interest to the old members of the Alexandria Light Infantry. The cane is made of light wood and upon it is cut the names of the 10 officers and men of the company who were members when the company enlisted in the Spanish war. The dates of the mustering in and out of the company are also cut upon the stick.

TO RESIGN.—Mr. F. E. Murray, who for several months past has been the agent of the Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad in this city, went to Baltimore today for the purpose of tendering his resignation.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Cold.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

O. O. Buck, Belmo, Ark., says: "I was troubled with constipation until I bought Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Since then I have been entirely cured of my old complaint. I recommend them. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It is said that there will be a deadlock over the election of a president when the board of fire wardens meet to organize.
At the meeting of the Relief Truck Company last night arrangements for the excursion to River View on the 19th instant were perfected.

Services will be held in St. Mary's Church tomorrow at the usual hour. The bell, however, will not be rung, owing to sickness in the neighborhood of the church.
The constable at Oxon Hill, Md., opposite this city, recovered a diamond ring yesterday from Mamie Thompson, colored, which is said to have been stolen from some one in Washington. The woman said that the ring had been given her by a man named Jennifer.

James L. Ferguson, a nine-year-old colored boy, whose home was at Herndon, Fairfax county, was killed by a live wire at Atlantic City Thursday. The boy was running under a tree when the wire came in contact with his face. He put up his hands to brush it aside and received a fatal shock.
The school board of Washington district, Alexandria county, Thursday night contracted with Messrs. William Ball and Chas. E. Harrison for the construction of the new Segmiller school building in the northern part of the county. Ground will be broken for the building the evening of Mr. John F. Hager was awarded the contract for furnishing the stone for the foundation and cellar walls.

Mr. C. B. Cornell, of the Fidelity Casualty Company of New York, was in this city today to make estimates for repairs at the Parker brewery, where one of the boilers exploded last Sunday.
A little child of Mr. M. Oregan fell from the railing in front of the building on the northeast corner of Prince and Royal streets last night and cut its face seriously.

Good peaches, watermelons and cantaloupes continue scarce.
There will be no services in Christ Church tomorrow, but services will be held in that church regularly each Sunday morning thereafter.

Mr. Wm. Windsor was struck by a piece of steel just below his eye in the Southern Railway shop yesterday and was quite painfully hurt.
Justice Thompson in the county yesterday sent Robert Pandleton, colored, on to the grand jury on the charge of horse stealing.

A handsome night blooming cereus was in full bloom last night in the garden of Mr. E. H. O'Brien.

Mr. Carl Bohrens sent to this office today a waiter of fine crabs which were much enjoyed.
Wakefield Church, at Hida, Fairfax county, will be abandoned tomorrow.

It Saved His Baby.
"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Duak, of Williams, Ore. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Mr. S. H. Allport, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Our little girl almost was ragged to death with a cough. The doctor said she couldn't live, but she was instantly relieved by one Minute Cough Cure. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons."
